

Relocation Services

Bay Area residents come from every corner of the world. We can reach potential residents with information about your property through our Relocation and Corporate Services Division and its relationships with Leading Real Estate Companies of the World[®], the Worldwide Employee Relocation Council, Relocation Directors Council, and human resource departments of major corporations.

Leading Real Estate Companies of the World

APR is Northern California's largest affiliate of Leading Real Estate Companies of the World, America's largest network of over 600 leading independent residential real estate firms. Member brokers work with individual relocating homebuyers and sellers, and through RELO Direct[®], Inc., the network's corporate relocation division, which manages employee transfer needs for client corporations. Leading Real Estate Companies of the World provides access to nearly 150,000 sales associates worldwide and maintains 5,000 offices in 35 countries.
